Our Process

SuperStaff BPO ensures that our clients receive the best results for their businesses by incorporating enhanced value-added solutions into our process.

1. Identify needs

SuperStaff BPO offers a wide range of back-office support services. Before establishing a workflow, we identify the activities that you need to outsource and the level of talent expertise you need.

🍼 2. Establish goals

Once we understand your business and the roles you need to fill, we proceed with the planning stage. Here, we set expectations about schedules, deliverables, and communication platforms.

3. Create scope of work

After establishing goals, we draft a work scope document that outlines the team's responsibilities. From there, we can create the Standard Operating Procedures.

4. Select from talent pool

Then, we proceed with assembling your back office support team. We involve you in this process and allow you to choose experts that will build your team.

5. Train and integrate

While we ensure that the talents we recruit have the skill sets you require, we conduct training to familiarize them with processes, guidelines, and your specifications.

6. Manage office o. wide.

Once all the initial stages are complete, we assume responsibility for your daily back-office functions. We will keep you updated on our performance by sending reports and other documentation.
